

Coupon Acceptance Policy

- *Coupons will not be accepted without the purchase of the item or items required by the coupon.
- *If the coupon value exceeds the price of the item, the excess amount will not be given as cash back or credit on the order.
- *Manufacturer Coupons must have a scannable barcode, a redemption address, and expiration date. Expired coupons will not be accepted.
- *Only one manufacturer coupon may be redeemed for each item purchased.
- *A limit of one manufacturer coupon and one store coupon for each item per each qualified item purchased.
- *No “Percent Off” coupons will be accepted.
- *No coupons for “FREE” items will be accepted if the coupon has no purchase requirement (except in the case of a C&R Store coupon).
- * We will accept a maximum of ten like manufacturer coupons per customer per day. And a maximum of two like internet printed coupons per customer per day.
- *Absolutely no photocopies of internet coupons will be accepted. Any attempt to redeem photocopied coupons will be treated as coupon fraud and treated as such.
- *All coupons are subject to stock on hand.
- *Management has the right to refuse any coupon and/or limit quantities of coupons redeemed.

Double/Triple Coupon Guidelines (when offered)

*Limit ten double and/or triple coupons for any particular item. Additional coupons for the same item will be redeemed at face value only.

*We will double and/or triple valid manufacturer coupons with face value of 50¢ or less. Only coupons for cents-off will be doubled or tripled. "FREE" item coupons are not eligible to be doubled/tripled.

*All coupon redemption is subject to stock on hand.

*The amount redeemed for the coupon cannot exceed the value of that particular item. C&R will not give cash back or credit on the order.

Management has the right to refuse any coupon and/or limit quantities of coupons redeemed.
